Excerpt from A Discourse: Delivered at Byfield, on the Public Fast, April 7, 1814 So rooted were their attachments to their present connexion, notwithstanding their oppressions, that Moses, who knew them well, so despaired of rousing them to demand their independence, that he said, They will not hearken to my voice, So it happened After he had called on them, to redress their grievances themselves instead of writing petitions; to act, instead of making melancholy faces; they met him, and said, Ye have made our name to be abhorred; ye have put a sword in their hands to slay us. You frighten us, and you will ruin us, by your bold preachments. So they hearkened not unto Moses, for anguish of spirit and for cruel bondage. The political measures, which Moses urged, appeared rash and violent. Moderation was the popular doctrine; it therefore, became necessary that God in his providence should afflict, and distress, and ruin them, by the abominable measures of their government, to render them willing to adopt suitable measures for their own advantage. ### Reviews

This pdf is very gripping and fascinating. We have read and that i am certain that i am going to going to read once more again in the future. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
-- Burnice Cronin

Completely among the best pdf I actually have possibly read through. It is probably the most awesome pdf we have read. You wont really feel monotony at whenever you want of your time (that's what catalogs are for about in the event you ask me).
