Excerpt: . THE MASTER OF THE HOUSE The scene is triangular; only two walls of Mr. Ovens parlour being visible. The left-hand wall is the longer. A window with a dark blind is near the spectator and further away is the fireplace. In the right-hand wall is the door, leading into a hall or passage. By the hearth, with its back to the spectator, is an arm-chair; it would be full in the light from the window if the blind were up and the sun were shining into the room. In the middle of the room is a big round table and three chairs. A sideboard is below the door; and a bureau, a sofa, and other chairs are in the room. The place is comfortable; the room of a hard-headed peasant come to town and fairly successful there; of a man who without any...
