Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Making a Sister: A Mock Initiation for Ladies Scene. - A parlor. Parlor suit with extra camp chairs if necessary. Room arranged as though for a meeting. Large chair, draped, at R., for Supreme Sister. One at L., for Assistant Supreme Sister. On either side of her are chairs for leaders. Gatekeepers on either side of door, C. Secretary and treasurer in upper corners. In C., a small table, draped, on which are displayed the skull and cross bones. The skull is a tobacco jar partly full. (At curtain, all on except Mrs. Spiration. All are talking except Mrs. Innitt, who is in her place at R., and rapping for order. She uses a small tack hammer as a gavel.) Mrs. Inn. Come, girls, this will never do. The first thing you must learn is to come to order at the sound of the gavel. Mrs. Metue. Is that what it is? I thought you were just knocking - as usual. Mrs. Inn. I suppose you think that's funny? Miss Oneley. Is that a...
