Bush, presents this true story about Ana who was born infected with HIV, transmitted from her young mother. Her mother died when she was three and from then on her life becomes a blur of faint memories and secrets, secrets about her illness and the abuse she endures. She is shuffled from home to home, rarely finding safety or love. And then she meets Berto, one of the only people she trusts with all her secrets. That trust puts Ana on a path to breaking the silence...
