Excerpt: . . . within stone walls, -a high fence to higher. Translations city here, a distortion to it a confirmation of n-umber in Israels armies, -a military policy first, historic greatness next, and expected credulousness ever. See v 13, 16 the evil and the good of these A champion of courage and sword to a leader of a squadron in line of battle (any number of such), -as groups of lines right and left the champions and othersito next in valor, and their assistants arear or aside-of them--those behind as armor bearers or replenishers of missles or broken arms. See-Achilles of near this time, and glimpses of such casually other Cities here (a studied and very misleading translation fit of inflated number), but Patriarchal homesteads (simple or collected), under head men or chiefs (v 8), and surrounded with a grazing desert or mountain agriculture with it, and stone wall corrals or fortress hold of women children huts and hand make industries--ch 10 v 4. Patriarch then, a smallest self protecting unit of life against secreting or roving bandits (ch 9 v 25) then everywhere of free range and watching opportunity to raid of others--a monogamous family then impossible other than within it, and it of little prestige. Polygamy and many children, . servants (often glad volunteers Ex ch 21), and cattle then a real necessity to self preservation. To travel other land without embassadorial authority or military guard, dangerous and dangerous yet--1911. Remedy a centralization of tribal...
