Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Mountie and the Sourdough All around the Bay District new outfitting stores had opened up stocked with warm blankets, socks and cold weather clothing; sleds and whipsaws; hammers, nails, sails and rope; pots, kettles and pans; warm caps and high-topped shoes; maps of the Yukon, etc. Frank N. Smith of Oakland and I had been getting ready for a long time to make the trip into the far away North by way of the Chilkoot Pass Route to Dawson. We both had lived in Oakland for many years and took plenty of time to get a splendid outfit. Every evening found us climbing the trails over the hills back of Oakland, hardening the muscles and getting in the very best of physical condition for our coming trip. We were in splendid health, and now fully prepared and equipped with everything required for our undertaking. So when the beautiful little steamer Walla-Walla pulled away from San Francisco on March 17, 1898, Frank and I were aboard with all our belongings and on our way to...
