Mr. Chairman, I think one of the stories that is most difficult for us to get out to the veteran and to the mortgage and real estate sales communities is the fact that the VA program has changed dramatically in recent years. We have made a con-certed effort in the last 10 years to streamline program operations to make it easier for private sector program participants to use and for veterans. Our focus has been on delegating as much authority as we can to lenders to make decisions on loans. Presently 99 percent of the loans that VA guarantees are proc-essed by lenders. And lenders have the authority to approve or dis-approve a veterans loan application. In 95 percent...
