Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Seven-Oh!-Seven: Livin the Dream begins in the quiet suburbs of NorCal, where the lifestyles of these kids are anything but! This may not be the SoCal glamour scene, but believe me-here in NorCal the sun shines just as hot, and the kids are even hotter. Take Max Kanelos for example-the super gorgeous, soft-spoken upperclassmen who I have an ongoing thing with. There s also Lexxie Monroe, a bi-racial beauty who is undeniably one of the prettiest girls in the school. Then there s Charleigh Stone, the fiery socialite that attracts lots of boys, not because she likes them, but simply because she can. And we can t forget about Levi LaRock, the smooth-talking sophomore who knows just the right thing to say to talk a girl out of her Seven jeans and straight into his own. So what happens when the school Casanova runs his game on the wrong girls, specifically my two best friends? Let s just say, this quiet town is about to get a whole lot louder. So stick with me, Neece Fierro, and I ll take you through my high school experience, where there are more great times than devastating ones, and even some things too shocking to fathom, but at the end of the day everyone is livin the dream. Trenise Ferreira began writing Seven-Oh!-Seven: Livin the Dream when she was fi een years old, in December 2006. She completed the book before her graduation from Vacaville High School in Vacaville, California, in June 2008. She was seventeen years old. Since graduation, Trenise has matriculated at the University of Southern California in the fall of 2008, where she is majoring in...
