By Kevin Keating, Jonathan Morrison, Joe Corrigan

Resistance Books, United Kingdom, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 142 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Kevin Keating is a trade union activist, a long-standing opponent of social partnership in the Irish Trade Union movement and advocate of rank and file organisation. Jonathan Morrison is a researcher with a wide knowledge of the political development of emerging economies. Joe Corrigan is an accountant with a background in economics and author of Prisoners of Social Partnership, an analysis of the corrosive effects of collaboration between the Irish government and Trade Union leadership. In Ireland's Credit Crunch they discuss the roots of the current crisis in Ireland, the unprecedented scale of the threat to workers in Ireland and Europe and details of the programme that workers should advance to build a real alternative to the economic famine they are facing. Further analysis of the Irish Crisis is available at:

Absolutely among the best publications I have got at any time go through. It really is written in straightforward phrases rather than hard to understand. It has been designed in an extremely straightforward way which is just soon after I finished reading this publication through which basically modified me, alter the way I believe.
