It seems fitting now before going further into details to call attention to the general progress made in four years. The progress of a single year often seems small, largely of promises and expectations; but when four consecutive years are taken together, we see more clearly and appreciate more fully what has been accomplished. In my former report, while congratulating the city on the general prosperous condition of the schools, I pointed out as clearly as I could the necessity for several improvements. Let us see what those demands were and how they have been met. I. The demand was made for a larger income - the power to levy a tax of six mills, if necessary, in place of a limit of four mills to the dollar. That power was given by an amendment to the Constitution which was approved by the Legislature in February, 1901, and adopted by the people of the State by popular vote in November, 1902. AS a consequence the Board levied five mills in 1903 and 5 mills in 1904. II. The general introduction of free books in all grades was urged, on the ground that the measure would promote the attendance in the higher grades, facilitate the organization and maintenance of class work, and be on the whole economical to parents. Free books and free stationery were, introduced in 1902. The effect upon the attendance in the grades above the fourth...
