Excerpt from The Proposed Union With the Cumberland Presbyterians The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, meeting at Los Angeles, Cal., in May, 1903, received from a number of its Presbyteries overtures relating to closer cooperation or union with sister denominations. In response to these overtures it appointed a Committee to consider the whole subject of cooperation, confederation and consolidation with other Churches. This Committee was instructed to enter into correspondence with any Churches of the Reformed family with whom, in the judgment of the Committee, such correspondence would be likely to promote closer relations ; and to report to the next Assembly such plans and measures as seem to them wise, proper and profitable for the advancement of fraternal relations, for the increase of harmonious work, and, if God shall open the way, and incline the hearts of the Churches thereto, for the reunion of those who hold the same faith and order in the service of Christ. No doubt the Committee, under the guidance of its able and energetic Chairman, has been diligently prosecuting throughout the year the somewhat extensive task committed to it. It is to be sincerely hoped that it will be able to report to the approaching Assembly much progress in the great work of drawing more closely together in the service of Christ those who hold the same faith and order. Meanwhile, however, we are incompletely informed of these labors. What absorbs our attention at the moment is the result of the conference of the Committee with a similar Committee appointed by the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, meeting at Nashville. This Committee...
