Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Jack writes with care, compassion and commitment. This is a must read for anyone who is blessed to accompany a loved one on that sacred journey toward life. - Gale Francine Kennebrew, D. Min. Whether with a loved one or facing death yourself, what is it going to be like? Conrad explores lived out experiences with people facing death and learning to live the life that God has remaining for them in Living Before Dying, The Impact of Death on Our Lives. From 97-year-old frail ladies to little ones in the presence of their dying mother, Jack touches the reader with stories that will teach or bring you back to memories of your loved ones. Framed in the Leading Causes of Life not death, Jack will show you examples of how to remain Living Before Dying. Jack Conrad is a man who became an Ordained Catholic Deacon some 15 years ago and encountered many difficult situations with death. Jack has two Masters Degrees, his most recent one in Religion. Jack is married to his high school sweetheart Linda who had five children, four of which were adopted special needs children. They now live within a few houses of some of their 13 grandchildren in Memphis Tennessee. Jack has lost all of his natural family losing two brothers, a sister, as well as his mother and father. He experienced the wonder of Hospice people as he experienced the death of his Mother and Brother. He vowed to pay back that gift as indeed he has in being a Hospice Chaplain, which has culminated with his book Living Before Dying.
