YMAA Publication Center, United Kingdom, 1996. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This book contains four short Chinese folktales for children, re-told by Dr. Yang and illustrated with watercolors. The first called The Mask of the King is a tale about a king who removes the long-worn mask upon his face only to discover that his subjects can now see the real him . The second story A Blessing in Disguise is the story of a wise man who knows not to become too excited by strokes of fortune or misfortune. The third The Poison of Love is a story about hatred being overcome by love. The fourth story A Thief and the Bell is about a wise judge using a clever trick to discover who the thief really is. All these stories are based upon the oral folktales of China and contain strong moral messages. Illustrated with original Chinese paintings, the stories are retold by Dr. Yang, Jwing-Ming.
